

Troop 753

Code of Conduct

I am a member of Boy Scout Troop 753, North District, Circle Ten Council, Boy Scouts of America. As a Boy Scout, I have sworn an oath that, On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; To help other people at all times; To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

I accept that living the Scout Law each day, at home, at school, at church, in my community, and with my troop is the true meaning of Scout Spirit. I can live the points of the Scout Law, and have them describe me as an individual. I can and will be someone who is: trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent.

I understand that this troop is MY troop, that I have a say in how it runs, and what we learn, experience and accomplish. My voice should contribute to the growth of my troop, and encourage my fellow scouts. My opinions should start great new things, keep what is good going, and stop whatever doesn't work for the betterment of my troop and our scouts.

My scout uniform should be an example of my respect for myself, my troop, and Scouting as a whole. I represent more than just me when I wear it, so I will wear it correctly and proudly.

If I am not a troop leader today, I may be tomorrow, and the respect that I show my senior patrol leader and the other members of the patrol leaders' council is the same respect that others will one day show me. I will honor and trust my fellow scouts for there certainly will come a time when I need them to teach me a skill or lend me hand. Likewise, one day someone will depend on me to teach them, and perhaps help them on their own Scouting path.

Above all, I can help make every troop activity an adventure. I want each moment spent with Troop 753 to be fun. I can choose to jump in to each experience with a desire to try something new, to stretch myself physically, mentally, and morally, and to look around me for ways to help others share the fun in a safe and appropriate way.
